

ART REFUGE: where great art has finally found shelter...

The Art Refuge, an exciting exhibition presented to you by Artphiló Gallery and Pink Chocolate Art Agency, brings together a unique group of talented artists from Canada, Greece and the UK.

Modern art and antiquated pieces form a vibrant relationship and work together in contrasting harmony during a week long exhibition that will take place at the 491 Gallery located in East London. This will give visitors a chance to embark on a personal journey within a sanctuary created to reclaim a haven for this distinct combination of art.

Exhibiting artists: Alexandros Maganiotis, Anastasia Kouvari, Andriana Kotsi, Beate Frommelt, Clare Burnet, Eli Politopoulou, Frixos Papantoniou, Katonas Asimis, Laura Hodey, Monika Veriopoulos, MTAF, Paula Cherry, Stella Pagoni, Susan James Dean, Sy Hackney and Tennille Will Exhibition Details: The Art Refuge opens on December 8th, 2007 and ends on December 16th, 2007. The exhibition will be open on weekdays from 16:00 to 20:00 and weekends from 12:00 – 18:00.

Art Refuge will launch on December 7th, 2007 from 18:30 – 20:00 by reservation only.
